PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Before joining the firm, Mrs. Yevoli worked for over 15 years representing clients in the business and health care sector.

Mrs. Yevoli started her practice in Kansas City working as a corporate and health care attorney in the business law department of Shook, Hardy & Bacon. After almost seven years, she was recruited by one of her clients, Mednax, Inc., a publicly traded physician practice management company, to relocate to Fort Lauderdale and join the Mednax in-house legal team. At MedNax, Mrs. Yevoli worked as Director of Business Development overseeing the legal, regulatory and employment aspects of the company's physician practice acquisition strategy. She was promoted to Associate General Counsel with responsibility for health care legal compliance, corporate and contracting matters for the company's affiliated professional corporations, employment contracting for health care professionals and executive management, hospital contracting, intellectual property protection, and public company filings.
