Nima Tahmassebi concentrates his practice in the areas of complex commercial and civil litigation in both federal and state courts. He has defended claims arising under consumer protection statutes and unfair competition statutes. He also works with businesses in highly regulated industries, including medical cannabis and industrial hemp.

Mr. Tahmassebi strives to resolve disputes in efficient, common-sense ways that achieve his clients' legal and business goals. His deep South Florida roots and community involvement benefit his clients as they navigate the litigation process or local business environment.
